Who will eventually kill Biden?!

Just a passing thought...

The number of people and organizations that would see the demise of Joe Biden is growing daily. I don't think there exists in living memory another person that is so hated... So vilified as Joe Biden and the Party he represents is.

The only thing that seems to work in his favor, is what would happen should he come to some misfortune - Kamala Harris would inherit the position. Can you just imagine the sheer chaos of Ms. Salad Head taking the reigns of our society?

Thank God, the Republicans are going to take both the House and Senate by convincing numbers come November. And, will they ever be busy... Many hearings and impeachments are coming, you can take that to the bank!

Well, if Joe does survive until the first of the year, we the America People will have front row seats!

What can the average citizen do?

Ok, so we have a while before calmer heads take over in Congress.

What can the average person do, in the face of a blatant takeover by elements of the far left. Should he or she demonstrate? Throw rocks in the street? No. They would love to see us act like them, but then we'd be like them. Better to wait for November and let the process work. Just remember the lesson - A vote for a democrat is a vote for communism.

The tragedy is real, the people desperate, the number staggering. Amid temperatures that hit routinely in the low hundreds, the numbers of those seeking asylum is steadily increasing. Unfortunately, so is the resolve of those determined to thwart the expectations of thousands of illegals.

This period in our history is a a clear vote for term limits!

If there was a take away lesson to be had these past two years it is this - term limit need some serious consideration!

Both the Democrats and the Republicans have grown way too complacent, so much so, that it is hard to get anything done in Congress. I say, let's force some change by imposing term limits on all Senators and Congressmen. Let's inject some new blood into both Houses and get the flow of legislation started again. Let's clean out the old garbage that's been sitting there for way too long. Let's get both men and women working for the People and not for themselves.
